Robert J. Burdette, the facetions editor of the Burlington Hawkeye, has been lecturing to large audiences in different parts of the country, and in his amusing style he imparts to the Iron, Steel, Coal, Anchors, Chains, rising generation some wholesome advice. The following is from one of his lectures:

New Life

is given by using Brown's

IRON BITTERS. In the Winter it strengthens and warms the system; in the Spring it enriches the blood and conquers disease; in the Summer it gives tone to the nerves and digestive organs;

in the Fall it enables the system to stand the shock

In no way can disease be so surely prevented as by

"Be somebody on your own account, my son, and don't try to get along on the reputation of your ancestors. Nobody knows and nobody cares who Adam's grandfather was, and there is not a man living who can tall the serme of Brickers Vorum's STEAM PACKING. tell the name of Brigham Young's mother-in-law." The lecturer urged upon his hearers the necessity of keeping up with the every-day proces-sion, and not pulling back in the har-ness. Hard work was never known to kill men; it was the fun that man had in the intervals that killed them. The fact was, most people had yet to learn what fun really was. A man might go to Europe and spend a mill-ion dollars, and then recall the fact that he had a great deal more fun at a picnic twenty years ago that cost him just 65 cents. The theory that the world owed every man a living was false. The world owed a man nothing. There was a living in the world for every man, however, pro-viding a man was willing to work for it. If he did not work for it, some-body else would earn it and the lazy man "would get left." There were

There was no browsing allowed in the rigorous West- Au energetic man might go out into the far West, and in two or three years possess himself of a bigger house, bigger barn-yard, a bigger barn, and a bigger mortgage than he could obtain by ten years' work in the East All young men ought to marry, and no young men should envy old men or rich men. In conclusion, Mr. Burdette said that a man should do well whatever he was given to do, and not despise drudgery. The world wants good shovelers, teamsters and labor ers, but it does not want poor lawyers, poor preachers, or poor editors.

Senator Mahone says put Virginia in the Republican column for 1884; the methods resorted to at the last election will react against the Demo-crats, and they will lose next year.

Philadelphia puts in a claim for the next Republican National Couvention. She bases her claim on the 20,000 Republican majority given at the late election.

SLIGHT ODDS. A Little Story with a Large Moral One Man who Knew his Own Business.

"No. my dear," said the venerable keeper of a country store to a timid little girl whose head scarcely came up to the level of the ounter. "No, my dear, we haven't any red flannel, but we have some first rate New Orleans molasses." Softly hinting that she didn't think that would answer the purpose quite as well, the child went her way in search of the article she wanted.

TERS?" asked a gentleman of a certain druggist whose name could be given were it desired. "I am troubled just now with a touch of my old friend, the lumbago, and the Benson's Plaster seems to go to the spot almost as oon as it touches the skin."

"Not at present." replied the druggist, genially " but, we have lots of plasters just as ASTORIA. - - OREGON good. There is Allcock's, the Capsicum and others-won't one of them do as well?" "My dear sir," retorted the gentleman, with a slight show of temper, "I say nothing against those articles, but I am a business man, and always ask for precisely what I want, and for nothing else. I may enlighten you, however, when I say that sometime ago, for another disease, of which the Capcine has Leinenweber & Co., since cured me, I tried all these you mention with no appreciable benefit. They are inefficlent, every one of them, the meanest act of the proprietors of some of them being this that they make plasters with similar sound ing names to decrive the unwary into believ-ing they are the same thing. Experience taught me the difference. I'll go to the next man in your line. Good day."

Bo on your guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPCINE cut cleanly in the middle of the plaster. All others are Seabary & Johnson, Chemists, New York.
